Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The family preservation program facilitates collaboration with local agencies to meet families in crisis and to provide necessary transitional counseling into healthier living situations. We have trained over 1000 candidates for various programs at the local and state levels over the past several years. We also write and publish books for use in violence and abuse prevention and in counseling. We also offer custody evaluations, medication services, seminars, classes and counseling sessions are offered regularly in both English and Spanish. These programs are supported by our educational institute, which offers a link between our clients and interns from local universities who seek quality, interactive training in human services and counseling fields.
